

Icebreakers

Human Bingo

For this activity you can photocopy the bingo sheet on the next page or create your own.

- Hand out “bingo” sheets with get-to-know-you questions.
- Explain that they need to move around the room and try to fill each on their bingo sheet with a different person’s name.
- When they have the whole sheet completed they should yell “bingo!”
- They should have each person sign at least once (if there are 16 or less people).
- Have winner read the names in each box and have the named person tell the group the answer.

Candy Game

For this activity you need a bowl of candy big enough for each person to take a handful.

- Pass around a candy jar to a group of youth. (Make sure there is at least enough candy for each person to take 3 or 4 pieces.)
- Have everyone take as much candy as they want but let them know that it must go around the whole circle with everyone getting some candy.
- If there is still candy in the jar then pass the jar around again.
- When the jar is empty tell them they must share one piece of information (nothing too personal) for every candy they have taken (e.g. favorites, family, music, experiences, likes/dislikes, etc).

Here's what you gotta do:

1. Walk around the room & find people who fit into the squares above.
2. Get them to sign the square if it applies to them. The ones with pictures are FREE squares!
3. You can only get someone to sign your sheet once, so get moving around the room and talk to different people!
4. Once you have a full line across or down, yell "BINGO." Oh, the prizes!!!
5. If that was too easy, see if you can fill all your squares today! Good luck!
